

Inaugural Day Graduate Programme 'Information & Knowledge Society'

October 14, 2022
at Amphi B7, Pont de Bois

The 'Information & Knowledge Society' Graduate Programme is a stimulating, competitive and innovative environment that gathers Master's and PhD students in the fields of computer science, data science, mathematics, physics, nanoscience, biotechnology, cognitive sciences and philosophy. It prepares students to work together to tackle on the challenges of the digital world, humanising the digital society, mastering complexity with innovative concepts and designing disruptive technology.

The Graduate Programme is pleased to invite you to its Inaugural day on 14th October 2022. This event will be an opportunity for to present the initiatives and resources offered to support all Graduate Programme students in their professional and academic projects.

- 9h15 General Presentation of the strategy of the University of Lille and of the 'Graduate Education in Lille' (GRAEL) project
Marc LEFRANC - Scientific Coordinator of the Graduate Programmes of ULille
- 9h45 Presentation of the Graduate Programme 'Information and Knowledge Society'
Marc LEFRANC - Coordinator of the IKS Graduate Programme
- 10h00 The Lilagora professional social network
Maxime LELIÈVRE - Lilagora administrator
- 10h30 Coffee Break
- 11h00 ULille & Graduate Programme mobility grants
Martin SANSÉAU - Innovative Project Officer
Ester MANIGRASSO - International Mobility Officer
Maéna MARTIN-LADAKIS - Graduate Programme Project Manager
- 12h00 Flash Poster Presentation
PhD students from the Graduate Programme will highlight their research
- 12h30 Lunch Break
With PhD students from the Graduate Programme available to discuss their research and their experience of a PhD thesis
- 14h00 After the Master's studies: pursuing a PhD
Ludovic MACAIRE - director of the MADIS doctoral school
Henri HAPPY - director of the ENGSYS doctoral school
Alexandre LÉON - Hauts-de-France Chamber of Commerce and Industry,
Simon SKRZYPCZAK - PhD student at ENGSYS doctoral school
- 15h30 Coffee Break
- 16h00 Presentation of some research units in the 'Human-friendly digital world' hub of ULille
Sylvain BOLLAERT - IEMN research unit in micro-electronics and nanotechnologies
Benoît FRESSE - director of the Painlevé research unit in Mathematics
Cristian FOCSA - director of the PhLAM research unit in Physics
Clarisse DHAENENS - director of the CRISAL research unit in Computer Science and Automation
- 17h20 Closing Remarks

